AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Cornelia Fales.

June 30, 1961
[H. R. 2972]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mrs. Cornelia Fales, of Metropolitan State Hospital, Waltham, Massachusetts, the sum of $10,000, less the amount of the unpaid premiums that would have been payable had the national service life insurance issued to her brother, the late Sam E. Seager, effective October 24, 1942, been kept in force to the time of the death of the insured. This payment shall be in full settlement of all the claims of the said Mrs. Cornelia Fales against the United States for payment of the proceeds of the said national service life insurance issued to her brother (Veterans' Administration claim numbered XC-3466817). At the time of the transfer of the said Sam E. Seager to the Enlisted Reserve Corps and subsequent thereto, he indicated his intention of retaining such insurance but at the time of his death on February 10, 1944, such insurance was not in effect because an official communication from the Army, written in response to his inquiry, misinformed him about his rights with respect to such insurance: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act in excess of 10 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved June 30, 1961.

Cornelia Fales.
